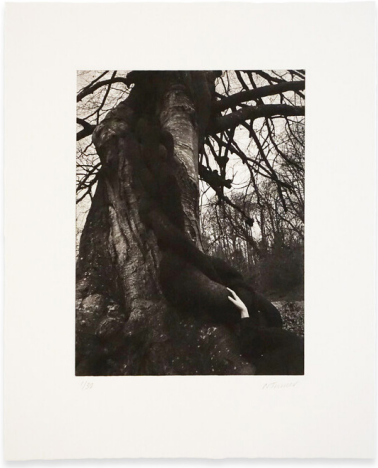
Father's Day 2026 Gift Guide

If you're looking for something a little different this Father's Day then the award-winning gift shops at Yorkshire Sculpture Park (YSP) have something for everyone.

With carefully selected gifts by artisan makers, renowned artists, and much-loved designers, you're sure to find something for even the hardest-to-please father figure.

Every gift purchased through the Park's shops helps to support YSP, a registered charity and accredited museum. With over 500-acres of parkland, woodlands and lakes to maintain, alongside its many inspiring exhibitions and activities, YSP offers a unique cultural visitor experience.



Nicola Turner: Whistler's Whisper, £175.00

A limited edition of 30 and signed by the artist, this atmospheric etching by Nicola Turner has been expertly printed by Huguenot Editions in London. The image has been taken from an original photograph taken by Nicola Turner whose exhibition Time's Scythe is on display in the Chapel.

YSP Roastology House Blend Ground Coffee, £12.00

Indulge dad with the signature YSP House Blend Coffee, a distinctive brew that captures the essence of Yorkshire's bold character. Meticulously sourced and roasted to perfection, this exceptional blend delivers a robust flavour profile with smooth undertones that will transform your daily coffee ritual.

A medium flavour coffee roasted by hand, using traditional methods in Sheffield, it's perfect for all day drinking or a quick caffeine pick-me-up. Every mug will offer a mix of smooth blends from Colombia and Costa Rica, balanced with flavours of citrus, red berries, brown sugar, and caramel chocolate.

LR Vandy: Dancing in Time, £175.00

Printed by Coriander Studio in London, this exclusive limited edition lithographic print of 30 has been created to accompany LR Vandy: Rise; an ambitious exhibition currently on show in The Weston Gallery at YSP. Vandy's material-led practice is distinguished by her use of rope and found materials to explore power dynamics, cultural traditions, and histories of international trade. The edition is hand signed and editioned by the artist.

Size: 40.9 x 53.7cm

David Mayne: From The Forest, £326.00

Experience the captivating allure of David Mayne's From The Forest, a striking metal sculpture that brings nature's grace into your space. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this piece captures the dynamic beauty of a single deer in its natural environment. Its sturdy metal construction ensures lasting elegance, making it a perfect centrepiece for any home or office.

Mayne is a nationally renowned sculptor whose work is made in Holmfirth, West Yorkshire.

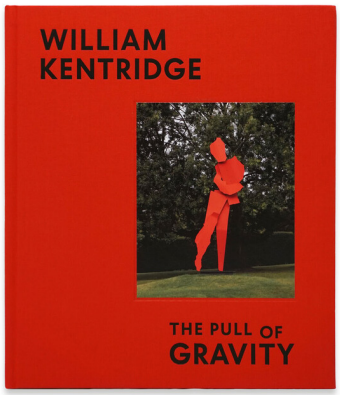
Block Design: Blue Gradient Sketching Pencils, £15.00

Is your dad a bit of a budding artist? Then this stylish set of pencils might draw him in. The set of six uses a light to dark colour palette to guide the user through the grades from 2H - 6B. The range of graphite grades also encourage the user to explore drawing styles and techniques, from fine and precise to soft and free. Team this set with the Angela Harding embossed notebook featured above.



William Kentridge: The Pull of Gravity Exhibtion Catalogue, £30.00

This hardback exhibition catalogue was created to support the 2025 headline exhibition, William Kentridge: The Pull of Gravity at YSP.

Kentridge is known for his work across a range of media, including drawing, animated films, theatre and opera productions. His practice questions grand narratives from history, politics, science, literature and music, alongside an ongoing interrogation of the legacy of colonialism. His work references avant-garde movements such as Dada and Surrealism in his celebration of the illogical and darkly humorous.

Old Fashioned Greetings Card, £3.25

Send a spirited message with this Old Fashioned greetings card. Designed by Swedish illustrator Elin PK, it comes complete with an authentic cocktail recipe to help concoct the perfect Old Fashioned. As part of a collection of cocktail-inspired designs, it's the perfect card to send to the cocktail connoisseur in your life. Cheers!

This A6 greetings card is bank inside for you to compose your own message.

About Yorkshire Sculpture Park

Yorkshire Sculpture Park (YSP) is the leading international centre for modern and contemporary sculpture. Welcoming around 380,000 visitors each year, YSP is a registered charity and accredited museum situated in the 500-acre, 18th-century Bretton Hall estate in West and South Yorkshire.

YSP is the largest sculpture park in Europe. Founded in 1977 by Sir Peter Murray CBE it is led by Director Joe Hill. It is the only place in Europe to see Barbara Hepworth's The Family of Man in its entirety, alongside a significant collection of sculpture, including works by Anthony Caro, Vanessa da Silva, Auke de Vries, Elisabeth Frink, Damien Hirst, Henry Moore, Marc Quinn, Ursula von Rydingsvard and Hank Willis Thomas, and site-specific works by Hemali Bhuta, Andy Goldsworthy, Alfredo Jaar, David Nash, Sean Scully and James Turrell.

YSP mounts a year-round temporary exhibitions programme including some of the world's leading artists across three indoor galleries and the outdoors. Highlights include exhibitions by Fiona Banner, Anthony Caro, Tony Cragg, Leonardo Drew, Robert Indiana, Amar Kanwar, KAWS, William Kentridge, Bharti Kher, Kimsooja, Joan Miró, Henry Moore, Lindsey Mendick, Annie Morris, Giuseppe Penone, Jaume Plensa, Ursula von Rydingsvard, Sean Scully, Chiharu Shiota, Yinka Shonibare CBE, David Smith, Joana Vasconcelos, Bill Viola and Erwin Wurm.

Across its 49-year history, YSP has worked with over 1,000 artists from more than 40 countries, on varied projects from short-term residencies to major surveys. YSP supports artists at vital stages in their careers and is rare in having the accommodation, workshops and expertise to enable open-ended and risk-taking practice, giving artists space, time and support to think and to develop new ideas.

Over this time, YSP has sought to ignite, nurture and sustain interest in and debate around contemporary art and sculpture, especially with those for whom art participation is not habitual or familiar. It enables open access to art, situations and ideas, and continues to re-evaluate and expand the approach to considering art's role and relevance in society. Supporting 40,000 people each year through YSP's learning programme, this innovative work develops ability, confidence and life aspiration in participants.

YSP's core work is made possible by investment from Arts Council England, Wakefield Council, Roger Evans, the Liz and Terry Bramall Foundation, The Garfield Weston Foundation and the Dunard Fund. YSP was named Art Fund Museum of the Year in 2014 and awarded the 2023 Visitor Attraction of the Year and Cultural Award in the Yorkshire Post Tourism Awards.
